"The homicide investigation of Raymond Riley had gone cold and no new information was coming into investigators. A media release was put out to the public with photographs and video of the suspects involved, in an effort to learn the identity of these individuals. Through response from CS's assisted investigators, through continued investigative means, in solidifying the identity of the individuals responsible, and have now been arrested and put before the courts to answer the charge of first degree murder."

Rose said police continue to investigate the murder, and — as is the case in most active investigations — know there are witnesses out there who have yet to come forward. That is the reality of any investigation, and is why Crime Stoppers has become a "valuable" partner for police, giving those scared for their safety, or who may fear repercussions, an anonymous option. — Excerpt from stcatharinestandard.ca
